It's a day many business owners have experienced - either with enthusiasm or anxiety - the day they sell their businesses. Depending on why or how you plan to sell yours, you may experience a meaningful increase in "liquid" assets under your direct control. Revisiting your allocation helps keep your financial plan aligned with your goals, risk tolerance and time horizon. When your portfolio is first constructed, it will ideally reflect your investment objective - a combination of your goals, risk tolerance and time horizon.
